Description:	myth_mtc.sh has been added to /etc/cron.daily. Unfortunately, this script attempts to do a few things I don't want it to do such as "/usr/LH/bin/update_system" (plus a lot of other things I don't really want done silently). There should be a way to disable this script. If I simply delete it from /etc/cron.daily, it comes back the next time the script is updated.
