Description:	First I installed Hulu desktop from the LinHES settings > programs menu and it didn't work from the screen. I then installed it with pacman and it still didn't work. If I run huludesktop from command line I get a result of "bash: /usr/bin/huludesktop: No such file or directory". I found elsewhere on the web that this error occurs with a 32 bit program on a 64 bit system. My processor is fairly old. It's one of the early amd64 parts AMD Athalon 64 3500+ in the "Clawhammer" era with a 939 pin socket.
