

LinHES - Bug # 966: Critical vulnerability in OpenSSL

Status:	Closed	Priority:	Immediate
Author:	mikavir	Category:	Packages: Core
Created:	04/08/2014	Assignee:	brfransen
Updated:	04/10/2014	Due date:
Description:	We seem to have openssl 1.0.1c, which, to my understanding is affected as per: http://www.openssl.org/news/secadv_20140407.txt The version should be updated to 1.0.1g soon. Mika E. Virtanen

Forgot to mention that this concerns the current (8.1) version of LinHES. And the precise version of openssl is 1.0.1.c-1.

I don't have an 8.1 system up right now to test but you can try it from the testing repo. pacman -U http://linhes.org/repo/x86_64/core-testing/openssl-1.0.1.g-1-x86_64.pkg.tar.xz
